

SERMON TOPIC:

As Time Runs Out

SERMON SUMMARY

This week's sermon focused on the theme of God's sovereignty and the assurance of His plans for our lives, as illustrated in Revelation 19. It emphasized that God is an artist and a potter, shaping our lives for His glory and our good. The message highlighted the importance of being ready for Christ's return, as time is fleeting and the current state of the world is not permanent. The sermon also touched on the significance of the second coming of Christ, the marriage supper of the Lamb, and the final victory over evil, encouraging believers to live faithfully and share the gospel.

1. God is continually shaping our lives for His glory and our good.
The second coming of Christ is a central theme in the Bible, emphasizing the need for readiness.
3. The marriage supper of the Lamb symbolizes the ultimate union of Christ and His church.
4. God's judgments are true and righteous, and He will make all things right.
5. We are called to live with an eternal perspective, sharing the gospel and supporting one another.

KEY VERSES

- Revelation 19:1-7
- John 14:2-3
- 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17
- Matthew 24:36

QUESTIONS

What does it mean to you that God is an artist and a potter?

- How can we prepare ourselves for the second coming of Christ?
- What are some ways we can remind ourselves of God's sovereignty in our daily lives?
- How does the concept of the marriage supper of the Lamb encourage you in your faith?
- In what ways can we be more intentional about sharing the gospel with others?
- What are some practical steps we can take to live with an eternal perspective?
- How can we support each other in our spiritual journeys as a church community?
- What does it mean to you that nothing in your life is wasted in God's plan?

LIFE APPLICATION

This week, take time each day to reflect on how God is working in your life and how you can align your actions with His purpose. Share your reflections with a friend or family member to encourage them in their faith journey.